2. No part of the custodial account funds may be invested in collectibles (within the meaning of section 408(m)), except as otherwise permitted by section 408(m)(3), which provides an exception for certain gold, silver and platinum coins, coins issued under the laws of any state, and certain bullion.

ARTICLE IV

1. Notwithstanding any provision of this agreement to the contrary, the distribution of the Member's interest in the custodial account shall be made in accordance with the following requirements and shall otherwise comply with section 408(a)(6) and the regulations thereunder, the provisions of which are herein incorporated by reference.
2. The Member's entire interest in the custodial account must be, or begin to be, distributed not later than the Member's required beginning date, April 1 following the calendar year in which the Member reaches age 70½. By that date, the Member may elect, in a manner acceptable to the Custodian, to have the balance in the custodial account distributed in:
 - a. A single sum or

b. Payments over a period not longer than the life of the Member or the joint lives of the Member and his or her designated Beneficiary.

3. If the Member dies before his or her entire interest is distributed to him or her, the remaining interest will be distributed as follows:

a. If the Member dies on or after the required beginning date and:

i. the designated Beneficiary is the Member's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the surviving spouse's life expectancy, as determined each year until such spouse's death, or over the period in paragraph(a)(iii) below if longer. Any interest remaining after the spouse's death will be distributed over such spouse's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year of the spouse's death and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year, or, if distributions are being made over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below, over such period.

ii. the designated Beneficiary is not the Member's surviving spouse, the remaining interest will be distributed over the Beneficiary's remaining life expectancy as determined in the year following the death of the Member and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year, or over the period in paragraph (a)(iii) below if longer.

iii. there is no designated Beneficiary, the remaining interest will be distributed over the remaining life expectancy of the Member as determined in the year of the Member's death and reduced by 1 for each subsequent year.

b. If the Member dies before the required beginning date, the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with (i) below or, if elected or there is no designated Beneficiary, in accordance with (ii) below:

i. The remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with paragraphs (a)(i) and (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), starting by the end of the calendar year following the year of the Member's death. If, however, the designated Beneficiary is the Member's surviving spouse, then this distribution is not required to begin before the end of the calendar year in which the Member would have reached age 70½. But, in such case, if the Member's surviving spouse dies before distributions are required to begin, then the remaining interest will be distributed in accordance with (a)(ii) above (but not over the period in paragraph (a)(iii), even if longer), over such spouse's designated Beneficiary's life expectancy, or in accordance with (ii) below if there is no such designated Beneficiary.

ii. The remaining interest will be distributed by the end of the calendar year containing the fifth anniversary of the Member's death.

4. If the Member dies before his or her entire interest has been distributed and if the designated Beneficiary is not the Member's surviving spouse, no additional contributions may be accepted in the account.

5. The minimum amount that must be distributed each year, beginning with the year containing the Member's required beginning date, is known as the "required minimum distribution" and is determined as follows:

a. The required minimum distribution under paragraph 2(b) for any year, beginning with the year the Member reaches age 70½, is the Member's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the distribution period in the uniform lifetime table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. However, if the Member's designated Beneficiary is his or her surviving spouse, the required minimum distribution for a year shall not be more than the Member's account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the number in the joint and last survivor table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9. The required minimum distribution for a year under this paragraph (a) is determined using the Member's (or, if applicable, the Member and spouse's) attained age (or ages) in the year.

b. The required minimum distribution under paragraphs 3(a) and 3 (b)(i) for a year, beginning with the year following the year of the Member's death (or the year the Member would have reached age 70½, if applicable under paragraph 3(b)(i)) is the account value at the close of business on December 31 of the preceding year divided by the life expectancy (in the single life table in Regulations section 1.401(a)(9)-9 of the individual specified in such paragraphs 3(a) and 3(b)(i).

c. The required minimum distribution for the year the Member reaches age 70½ can be made as late as April 1 of the following year. The required minimum distribution for any other year must be made by the end of such year.

6. The owner of two or more Traditional IRAs may satisfy the minimum distribution requirements described above by taking from one Traditional IRA the amount required to satisfy the requirement for another in accordance with the regulations under section 408(a)(6).

ARTICLE V

1. The Member agrees to provide the Custodian with all information necessary to prepare any reports required by section 408(i) and Regulations sections 1.408-5 and 1.408-6.
2. The Custodian agrees to submit to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and Member the reports prescribed by the IRS.

2.01. Members Contributions to Traditional IRA. All contributions to the Fund shall be in the form of bi-weekly Agency payroll allotments (NSA civilian employees only), check, automatic debit from savings / checking account, or any combination of the above.

(a) Regular Contributions. Annual contributions must be made no later than the due date (not including extensions) for filing the Member's Federal Income Tax Return for the year.

(b) Qualified Reservist Distribution Repayment. In addition to the amounts described in Article I, an individual may make a repayment of a qualified reservist distribution described in Code Section 72(t)(2)(G) during the 2-year period beginning on the day after the end of the active duty period or by August 17, 2008, if later.

(c) In addition to the amounts described in Article I and subparagraph (b) above, an individual who was a participant in a Section 401(k) plan of a certain employer in bankruptcy described in Code Section 219(b)(5)(C) may contribute up to $3,000 for taxable years beginning after 2006 and before 2010 only. An individual who makes contributions under this paragraph (c) may not also make catch up contributions as individual over the age of 50 as described in Article I.

2.02. Rollover Contributions. With respect to rollovers, the Member shall certify that:

(a) such amount does not include any non-deductible contributions made by the Member on his own behalf as an employee (other than amounts non-deductible under Section 219(g) of the Code);

(b) in the case of a distribution from a qualified plan, the contribution qualifies as an "eligible rollover distribution" under Section 402(c)(4) of the Code and related regulations.

(c) such contribution is being made no later than sixty (60) days after the receipt of such distribution by the Member; and

(d) if the contribution represents a rollover from another IRA, no previous rollover has been made within one (1) year to or from another Individual Retirement Account.

2.03. Spousal Contributions. In the case of a married couple where one spouse is eligible for an IRA and the other spouse has received less compensation than the eligible spouse (or no compensation), amounts may be contributed into the accounts of both spouses. The total combined contribution a couple may make to both their Roth IRAs and their traditional IRAs is the lesser of $10,000 or the couple's combined compensation for the year (with an additional $1,000 permitted for each spouse who is age 50 or over by the end of the year). The spouses may divide the total contribution in any manner they choose, as long as no more than $5,000 (after 2007), plus a catch-up of $1,000 if applicable, is contributed on behalf of each spouse to any type of IRA or combination of IRAs. Contributions shall not be allowed pursuant to this Section 2.03 unless the couple files a joint Federal Income Tax Return with respect to the year for which the contribution is being made.

2.04. Member's Contribution Certification. Each contribution by a Member constitutes a certification by the Member that:

(a) all contributions made into his IRA are within the limits specified by law;

(c) Member satisfies the eligibility requirements specified in the law to make such contributions.

SECTION III INVESTMENTS

3.01. Investment of Contributions. Any contributions by a Member to the Plan may be invested on the Member's behalf in one or more investment options provided to the Member by the Plan Administrator. Subject to the restrictions on prohibited transactions contained in Section 4975 of the Code and Act, Title I, Sections 406, and 408, the Custodian shall invest the amounts standing to a Member's credit in his accounts as directed by that Member. If a Member does not direct the Custodian to invest his account balances, the Custodian may invest the assets in his accounts in a default investment option to be determined by the Plan Administrator and communicated to the Member prior to investment.

It is intended that the investments in a Member's Account under the Plan comply with Section 404(c) of the Act and Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations Section 2550.404c-1 by allowing the Member to direct the investment of his Account into a broad range of investment options. Accordingly, when a Member exercises control over assets in his Account, as described in Section 404(c) of the Act, the Member shall not be deemed to be a fiduciary by reason of his exercise of control and the Custodian shall be relieved of liability for any loss, or by reason of any breach, which results from such exercise of control.

The Plan Administrator shall establish appropriate rules and procedures and provide appropriate forms under which Members are notified of the investment options into which contributions may be invested and given the right to select among such investment options.

3.02. Transfers Between Investment Options. The Plan Administrator shall establish rules and procedures and provide forms under which Members may transfer funds being held for the Member from one investment option to another. Such rules and procedures may, among other things, prohibit various types of transfers between investment options and impose administration expense charges and withdrawal fees in connection therewith. All such rules and procedures shall be disclosed in writing to a Member prior to the acceptance of any contributions from the Member to the Plan.

SECTION IV VOLUNTARY DISTRIBUTIONS AND ALIENATION OF BENEFITS

4.01. Voluntary Withdrawals

(a) A Member shall have the right to withdraw any part of, or the balance in, his Account upon submission of a written election to the Plan Administrator at such time and in such manner as shall be prescribed by the Plan Administrator.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (c) and (d) below, any voluntary withdrawal shall be subject to an administration expense charge established by the Plan Administrator from time to time, not to exceed five percent (5%) of the amount withdrawn, and a withdrawal fee established by the Plan Administrator from time to time not to exceed Twenty Dollars ($20.00).

(c) The administration expense charge set forth in subparagraph (b) above shall not be charged (i) if the Member has attained the age 59½ or, (ii) in the case of an intelligence community retiree, (iii) if the Member's Account is invested in a Group Annuity Contract with a fixed maturity date and the Member elects to withdraw all or any portion of his Account on the maturity date of such Group Annuity Contract, or (iv) if the withdrawal is due to Member's death or disability.

(d) The withdrawal fee set forth in subparagraph (b) above shall not be charged (i) if the total value of the Member's Supplemental Retirement Plan accounts meet or exceed $500,000, (ii) if withdrawal of funds is due to the IRS required minimum distribution under Article IV, limited to once per calendar year, (iii) if withdrawal of funds is due to death or disability of the account holder, or (iv) in certain transfers of funds from one investment option to another as determined by the Plan Administrator and communicated to the Member in writing.

(e) Except in the case of a Member's death, disability or attainment of age 59½, the Member shall furnish the Plan Administrator, upon request, with a written declaration of the Member's intention as to the disposition of the amount to be distributed before such distribution may occur.

4.02. Alienation of Benefits. Funds are intended for the benefit of the Member or the Beneficiary. No benefit payable under this Agreement shall be subject in any way to alienation, sale, transfer, assignment, pledge, attachment, garnishment, execution, or encumbrance of any kind, and any attempt to accomplish the same shall be void.

SECTION V MEMBER ADMINISTRATIVE PROVISIONS

5.01. Beneficiary Designation. The Member may from time to time designate, in writing, any person or persons, contingently or successively, to whom the Custodian shall pay his interest in his Account on event of his death. The Advisory Committee shall prescribe the form for the written designation of Beneficiary and, upon the Member's filing the form with the Advisory Committee, it effectively shall revoke all designations filed prior to that date by the same Member.

5.02. No Beneficiary Designation. If a Member fails to name a Beneficiary in accordance with Section 5.01, or if the Beneficiary named by a Member predeceases him or dies before complete distribution of the Member's interest in the Account, then the Custodian shall pay the Member's Account balance in lump sum(s) in the following order of priority to:

- (a) The surviving spouse or Domestic Partner;
- (b) Surviving children, including adopted children, in equal shares;
- (c) Surviving parents, in equal shares; or
- (d) The legal representative of the estate of the last to die of the Member and his Beneficiary.

The Advisory Committee shall direct the Custodian as to whom the Custodian shall make payment under this Section 5.02.

5.03. Personal Data to Committee. Each Member and each Beneficiary of a deceased Member must furnish to the Advisory Committee such evidence, data, or information as the Advisory Committee considers necessary or desirable for the purpose of administering the Plan. The provisions of this Plan are effective for the benefit of each Member upon the condition precedent that each Member will furnish promptly full, true, and complete evidence, data, and information when requested by the Advisory Committee, provided the Advisory Committee shall advise each Member of the effect of his failure to comply with its request.

5.04. Address for Notification. Each Member and each Beneficiary of a deceased Member shall file with the Advisory Committee from time to time, in writing, his post office address and any change of post office address. Any communication, statement or notice addressed to a Member, or Beneficiary, at his last post office address filed with the Advisory Committee, or as shown on the records of the Association, shall bind the Member, or Beneficiary, for all purposes of the Plan.

5.05. Notice of Change in Terms. The Plan Administrator, within the time prescribed by the Act and the applicable regulations, shall furnish all Members and beneficiaries a summary description of any material amendment to the Plan or notice of discontinuance of the Plan and all other information required by the Act to be furnished without charge.

5.06. Individual Statement. As soon as practicable after the Accounting Date of each Plan Year but within the time prescribed by the Act and the Regulations under the Act, the Plan Administrator will deliver to each Member (and to each Beneficiary receiving benefits under the Plan) a statement reflecting the condition of his interest in the Fund as of that date and such other information the Act requires be furnished to the Member or Beneficiary. No Member, except a member of the Advisory Committee, shall have the right to inspect the records reflecting the Account of any other Member.

SECTION VI MISCELLANEOUS

6.01. Fund Not Guaranteed. Neither the Custodian, the Advisory Committee, nor the Association in any way guarantees the Fund from loss or depreciation. The Association does not guarantee the payment of any money which may be or become due to any person from the Fund. The liability of the Advisory Committee and the Custodian to make any payment from the Fund at any time and all times is limited to the then-available assets of the Fund.

6.02. Waiver Notice. Any person entitled to notice under the Plan may waive the notice.

6.03. State Law. All questions arising with respect to the provisions of this Plan shall be determined by application of the laws of the State of Maryland except to the extent superseded by Federal statute.

SECTION VII AMENDMENT AND TERMINATION

7.01. Amendment. The Association shall have the right at any time and from time to time:

- (a) To amend the Plan in any manner it deems necessary or advisable in order to qualify (or maintain qualification of) this Plan and Fund created under it under the provisions of Section 408(c) of the Code;
- (b) To amend the Plan in any other manner. However, no amendment shall authorize or permit any of the Fund (other than the part which is required to pay taxes and administration expenses) to be used for or diverted to purposes other than for the exclusive benefit of the Members or their beneficiaries or estates. No amendment shall cause or permit any portion of the Fund to revert to or become a property of the Association; and no amendment which affects the rights, duties or responsibilities of the Custodian or the Advisory Committee may be made without the written consent of the affected Custodian or the affected member of the Advisory Committee. The Association shall make all amendments in writing. Each amendment shall state the date to which it is either retroactively or prospectively effective.

7.02. Discontinuance. The Association shall have the right, at any time, to terminate the Plan and the Fund created hereunder. The Plan shall terminate upon whichever of the following events first occurs:

(b) The dissolution, merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Association or the sale by the Association of all or substantially all of its assets, unless the successor or purchaser makes provision to continue the Plan, in which event the successor or purchaser shall substitute itself as the Association under this Plan.

7.03. Termination. Upon termination of the Plan, the Plan shall cease (1) accepting new contributions from Members and (2) purchasing new investments on behalf of Plan Members. Thereafter, the Custodian shall, upon thirty (30) days notice at the written direction of the Association, either (1) distribute each Member's account to the Member (or to his Beneficiary if the Member is deceased), within five (5) days after the close of the Plan year in which termination of the Plan occurred, or (2) defer distribution of each Member's accounts until the expiration of existing annuity contracts within which the Members' accounts are invested. In the event that the second option is exercised by the Association, the Custodian shall, within 5 days of the expiration of each existing annuity contract, distribute to the Member (or to his or her Beneficiary if the Member is deceased) the portion of the Member's account which was invested in each such contract. The Custodian shall, under either option, continue to hold and administer all such assets in accordance with the terms of the Plan until distribution to the Plan Member.
